

Fuel Assistance (also known as the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program) helps eligible households challenged by the high cost of home heating fuel pay a portion of their winter heating bills.

Oil
Electricity
Natural Gas
Propane
Kerosene
wood coal

Annual Gross Income

1 Person Household: $40,951
2 Person Household: $53,551
3 Person Household: $66,151
4 Person Household: $78,751
5 Person Household: $91,351

Eligibility

Applicants must reside in Hampden County (except Springfield)

Household income cannot exceed 60% of the Estimated State Median Income

Those who have heat included in their rent and meet income and residence eligibility may be eligible to receive a subsidy for a portion of their monthly income from November to April

Those who have heat included in their rent and have a subsidy must pay over 30% of their income towards rent in order to be eligible

Those who live in public housing are not eligible (are already state or federally aided)